10 days of Activism Against Gender-based Violence

Schedule:

Date & Time	Activity	Location
November 23 – 27, daytime	Artivism exhibit: Art projects as activism against sexual violence. Features artwork from various artists using different mediums, from self-portraits to films. Student and Employees can participate in a reflection activity. Note: Select classes are coming by on November 25.	Upper Atrium, near the gallery
November 23, from 12 pm – 1 pm	Men's Sharing Circle – themes include: • Healthy Relationship Skills & Empathy • What Does It Mean to Be a Man Today? • Role Models and Mentors • Emotional Intelligence and Empathy • Handling Failures and Lessons Learned • Relationships and Communication • Mental Health and Emotional Wellbeing • Personal Growth Challenges	Gallery
November 24, 11 am – 2 pm	Sharing Circle with Shield of Athena – Discussions centered on healthy relationships, open to all and drop in	Gallery
November 24, 12 pm – 1 pm	Men's Sharing Circle (same as above)	Starts in the Gallery but moving to FYSO
November 24, 10 am – 2 pm	Shine the Light Campaign – Button making table and reminder to wear purple on the 25th "The goals of the campaign remain the same, to raise awareness of violence against women and to shift any shame or blame that they might feel to the shoulders of the perpetrator of the violence and the abuse," said Dunn. "The Shine a Light campaign was built to mobilize communities and institutions to take concrete action toward ending violence against women." This year's campaign theme is focused on intimate partner violence and coercive control. https://www.ctvnews.ca/london/article/lawc-marks-17th-annual-shine-the-light-on-women-abuse-campaign/
November 25, 12 pm – 1 pm	Men's Sharing Circle (same as above)	Starts in the Gallery but moving to FYSO

November 25, 11 am – 2 pm (International Day for the Elimination of Violence against Women)	Tabling: SVRT CALAC Campus Life with more buttons and cupcakes	Upper Atrium
November 30 – December 4	Exhibit about Femicides in Quebec: Artivism is replaced by a display of recent femicides in Quebec. It includes portraits of the victims and associated news articles.	Upper Atrium, next to the Gallery
November 30-December 3	White Ribbon Campaign: male employees and students will be asked to wear the white ribbon and encourage others to so as a pledge to prevent domestic violence and femicide.	Upper Atrium
November 30, 11 am – 12 pm	Men's Sharing Circle (same as above)	Gallery
December 1, 12 pm – 1 pm	Men's Sharing Circle (same as above)	Gallery
December 2, 12 pm – 1 pm	Men's Sharing Circle (same as above)	Gallery
December 3, 12 pm – 1 pm	Men's Sharing Circle (same as above)	7B.5
December 4, all day	Memorial table for all victims of femicide	Upper Atrium