

Please join us for a Social Service Student for a Day Experience

On Monday January 30, 2012
The Social Service Program will hold a two hour experiential session for students interested in the helping profession

If you are curious about our program and considering applying, the experience will allow you to see how we teach, what kinds of helping skills you will learn and what types of social problems you will deal with

You will also have the chance to meet and talk with students who are currently in the program
