

REFERENCE ANY SOURCE IN APA STYLE

Your go-to handout for APA style

Use the table below to reference any source in APA style (7th edition) in your References List.

- Every field can be filled in. However, if information is unavailable, skip the field.
- The order of information between fields never changes.
- The punctuation between each field is given in the table. It is always the same.

Khelfaoui, M., & Gingras, Y. (2019, March). Physical review: From the periphery to the center of physics. Physics in Perspective, 21(1), 23–42.

<https://doi.org/10.1007/s00016-019-00235-y>

Author.	Khelfaoui, M. & Gingras, Y.
(Date).	(2019, March)
Title.	Physical review: From the periphery to the center of physics.
Other contributors (e.g., the editor)	N/A
(Edition)	N/A
Periodical Title,	Physics in Perspective ,
Volume(Issue),	21(1),
Location.	23–42.
DOI or URL	http://www.doi.org/10.1007/s00016-019-00235-y

If your source does not have a DOI, it is not necessary to supply an URL.

For more information, consult the APA Handbook or contact the Academic Skills Centre.