

HUMANITIES
& PUBLIC LIFE CONFERENCE
Reconsiderations

September 18-22, 2017 Dawson College

	September 18th Monday	September 19th Tuesday	September 20th Wednesday	September 21st Thursday	September 22nd Friday
8:30– 9:45 a.m.	Education or Entertainment: Assessing the Data on Learning Mariam Sambe Humanities Department, Dawson College	TBD	Right-Wing Populism in Transition: From Thatcher to Trump Sean Elliott and Paul Sahni Dawson College	Navigating late-19th century Victorian media; or, A Guide to YouTube Stardom Stephan Pigeon Department of History, McGill University	TBD
10:00– 11:15 a.m.	Ending Modern Day Slavery at a Local Level Moderator: Jennifer Dellar En Marche!	Ethical Consumerism Nikki Schiebel Éco-quartier Presentation cosponsored with Dawson Peace Week	Queer Media Database Film and Video Screening Queer Media Database Canada-Québec	Reconsidérer : transformer son expérience en connaissance Djemaa Maazouzi French Department, Dawson College	From a 50-Year Guerrilla War Toward Peace in Colombia: History and Prospects Catherine LeGrand Department of History, McGill University
11:30– 12:45 p.m.	S.P.A.C.E.: Reconsidering Entropy Andrew Katz English Department, Dawson College	The Evolution of Mental Health Services: Challenges, Experiences and Opportunities Collective Community Services Group	“People talking without speaking”: Reconsidering Silence in the Cambodian Diaspora in Canada Pharo Sok Department of History, Dawson College	Marx’s Inferno: Rereading Capital as Political Theory William Clare Roberts Department of Political Science, McGill University	Americans, Be Ye Not Perfect: How Protestant Tribalism Still Hurts the United States J.M. Opal Department of History, McGill University
Monday Only 12:00– 12:45 p.m.
1:00– 2:15 p.m.	Indigenous world views for a better understanding of the Sacred Balance Nadine St-Louis Sacred Fire Productions and Ashukan Cultural Space Presentation cosponsored with Dawson Peace Week	Art, Love, and the Russian Revolution: A Novelist’s Perspective Jocelyn Parr History Department, Dawson College	Beyond Words: Reconciliation in Practice Waneek Horn-Miller Olympian, Storyboot Project, and APTN	Long Term Policy Making: The Necessary Future of Environmental Policy Alex Tyrell Leader, Quebec Green Party Presentation cosponsored with Dawson Peace Week	What would you grab if your house were burning? Fear, Anxiety, and Psychoanalysis Erica Harris Humanities Department, Dawson College
2:30– 3:45 p.m.	Slasher Theory— Reassessing an Undervalued Subgenre Chair/Provocateur: Kristopher Woofter Dawson College, Miskatonic Institute of Horror Studies.	U.S. Foreign Relations in a World of Jazz and Hip Hop Shanon Fitzpatrick Department of History, McGill University	KEYNOTE PRESENTATION Women’s Sport and the Politics of Veiling in the Islamic Republic of Iran and FIFA/IOC Homa Hoodfar Department of Anthropology, Concordia University	Reconsidering Religious Literacy Daniel Goldsmith Humanities Department, Dawson College
4:00– 5:15 p.m.	The shape of your skull: The rise and decline of scientific racism Eliza Wood Humanities Department, Dawson College	Arabic for Beginners: Israel-Palestine, Motherhood, and the Ethics of Fiction Ariela Freedman Liberal Arts College, Concordia University	Are You a Moral Vegetarian, a Vegan, an Ethical Meat Eater, or None? Nadia Khouri Humanities Department, Dawson College	Our Contradictory relationship with animals – and how we can change it. Alanna Devine Director of Animal Advocacy, SPCA Montreal

All sessions will take place in the Multipurpose Room 5B.16 (except for Thursday morning sessions – in the 3C Cafeteria); Tuesday’s New School presents University of the Streets: Local Successes and Big Picture Shifts at 7pm in New School (8B. lounge), and the It Happens Here testimonials on Wednesday at 6pm in Oliver’s.

For more information please contact Julian Nemeth, jnemeth@dawsoncollege.qc.ca