There are several places you can go to fulfill your pre-university CEGEP requirements. All of us in the CEGEP system have at least that much in common! But that may be all of it.

The New School has . . .

Social Contracts -

promises made by the New School's director for the community to you and promises you make to the New School community. These promises are about being concerned about yourself, about others, and about being an active agent in the learning that will be in progress all around you.

Bands - groups of 30 students and 3 teachers joined together out of common interests and concerns. With this enlarged family you will be involved for one entire term. You will create your own social character, your curriculum, your community involvement. This is home.

Core Facility -

a space dedicated to being together as a community. That space will be a different kind of space than you have ever known in a "school".

Community Workers - people who are caring and skilled, available to help you be you and to make it with others.

And Services -

when we find out what our needs are, we will work to achieve them.

And etc. . . .

BUT the most important thing we have that's different from any other CEGEP is US.
