

Peer Review - Integrative Seminar Final Assignment

Name of Reviewer: _____

Name of Author: _____

Topics	Score	Comments/Explanation
Title and Abstract: The title is meaningful and provides the reader with useful information. The abstract is concise and provides enough information to signal to the reader what the paper is about.	/10
Introduction: There is a clear topic and thesis statement provided. The introduction provides some brief context about the topic of the research essay. The reader can easily recognize in which direction the paper will go.	/10
Body: There is an adequate historical contextualization of the topic. The main arguments are clearly defined and supported with evidence. The essay flows with appropriate transitions between sections. All supporting evidence is provided with citations in MLA format. The paragraphs are well-structured and logically organized.	/10
Conclusion The thesis is shown to have been proved with supporting evidence. The personal reflection is brief and is relevant to the topic of the research essay.	/10
General Form: It is clear that this essay has been proofread carefully for spelling and grammar errors. The paper has been formatted in a way that makes it easy for the reader to follow the writer's argument.	/10	